THREATEN DEATH TO ADA COTTON BUYERS

NOTE MAILED TO ADA POSTMASTER ORDERS BUYING TO CEASE UNDER PENALTY OF DEATH.

"cotton buyers stop buying till you can pay the price."
"mr banker dont be hard on the farmer"
"All cotton buyers obey or dye."

So reads a note sent to Postmaster Winn, evidently with the expectation that he would make its contents public. The note is written on a small scrap of paper in blue pencil, and on the reverse side is a rough sketch of a coffin on which is written "15 cts." The writer evidently sought to hide his identity so completely that detection would be impossible, but the trouble seems to be that he buried it so deeply that it sticks out on the other side. The envelope is of government make and was for Route 3, Konawa. The writer made an attempt to scratch off the postoffice name, but did not entirely succeed. His greatest mistake, however, was in mailing the letter to the postmaster of Oklahoma City to be forwarded from there. He evidently was not aware of the fact that the law requires all such letters to be stamped with the name of the office from which they originally started, which in the present instance happens to be Konawa.

Naturally the question arises whether it is the work of some irresponsible individual, evidence of the existence of a band of night riders, or only a clumsy attempt at a joke. Of the first two possibilities, it seems that it is more probable that a single individual, or perhaps two or three, are the originators of the idea. If there had been a very large number, some one would have devised a better method. The second case hardly seems probable, but it is possible, of course, that some fellow near Ada is trying to play a joke. No matter how it is, it is very probable that the secret service officers of the postoffice department will be put on the trail, and if he is caught will find out what it means to send threatening matter like this through the mails. Of course if anything begins to develop, the officers of the two counties will keep a close watch on suspicious characters.

FAVOR LOANING SCHOOL MONEY TO FARMERS

Roff, Okla., Sept. 29.—A meeting will be held at Roff on Monday, Oct. 2nd, p. m., for the purpose of petitioning the Legislature to pass laws that will allow $8,000,000 of the school money of the state to be loaned to the farmers on 40 years time at 5 per cent, provided that it can be used for no other purpose than the purchase of land and that the land be security for the money loaned.

John Rinard was a passenger to Tupelo this morning.

MAKING READY TO BUILD

MOVING OUT LAST WOODEN BUILDINGS BETWEEN CITY HALL AND COURT HOUSE.

"De sun do move," declared the old negro preacher, and the same has been true of the south side of 12th street during the past two years. Until then a lumber yard and numerous wooden shacks fringed the street, but in a few days more the last of these will have been removed and preparations under way for filling in the gap between the city hall and the court house block with two story brick buildings. The old paint shop was moved away this morning, and Judge McKeown is preparing to have the old Central hotel moved to a lot on West Main street to make room for his two bricks. While no definite time has been set for beginning this work the News is informed that it will not be over a week or ten days at the latest before material for the Daggs-Little building will be put on the ground.

The East Main building plans are well under way, and it is stated that in a very short time that end of town will be coming to the front.

With the Guyer building on West Main just completed, the Hays-Carney block almost ready for the finishing touches, and the walls of the Aldrich and Collins buildings rising, twelve or fifteen included in the plans mentioned above, there can certainly be no reason why any one should doubt that men of affairs have confidence in the future of the town.

CLERK ORDERED TO SIGN WARRANTS

Watonga, Okla., Sept. 28.—District Judge Jas. R. Tolbert has handed down a decision in the mandamus proceedings of Sheriff S. E. Southernland and deputy J. C. Glass to compel the county clerk to issue warrants on claims allowed them by the board of county commissioners. No warrants have been drawn on any of the funds for the past fiscal year since early in April for the reason that about $7,000 worth of warrants had been drawn against an estimated income of $65,000. The clerk held that he is prohibited by law from drawing warrants in excess of the estimate and that he would be personally liable for them if issued. After a lengthy argument by both counsel for plaintiff and defense Judge Tolbert commended the county clerk for his firm stand and ordered that the warrants be drawn. The clerk and his deputy are busy drawing the warrants which are over 2,000 in number and aggregate a sum of about $20,000. It will require about two weeks to complete the task and in the meantime the case will be appealed to the supreme court.

Roff Defends Bond Issue.

The city of Roff has just voted on the question of issuing $10,000 in bonds for the erection of a city hall and fire station, the vote being 31 for and 63 against the proposition. The Eagle states that the already high taxes caused the people to feel like it is best to go slow in the matter of adding to the load already being carried.

THE HARRINGTON STOCK COMPANY

When the above company returns to Ada next week it will make the third engagement the company has played here this season, something quite unusual, but the popularity of the Harrington Stock Co. is unquestioned. A complete list of new plays will be presented as well as up-to-date specialties. The company has several new members, and the band and orchestra is also larger and better than ever. Special pains has been taken to make this final engagement of the season the most successful of them all. The company will open on Monday, October 2nd.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS

Stockholders of News Publishing and Printing Co. Hold Meeting—Dividend of 10 Per Cent Declared.

The stockholders of the News Publishing and Printing Co. held their semi-annual meeting yesterday afternoon. President Weaver made a brief report of the first year's work of the company, and the reports of the manager and the secretary-treasurer which followed, all showed that the business of the concern during its first year had been extremely satisfactory, in spite of many obstacles which all new business enterprises of the kind must face during the period of readjustment.

STOVES SMITH'S 203-5 W. Main St.

The following directors were elected for the ensuing term: Otis B. Weaver, Byron Norrell, A. B. Yeager, Miss Mollie Jernigan, John P. Crawford, Miles C. Grigsby and C. A. Galbraith.

The directors held a meeting immediately after the adjournment of the stockholders, and elected Otis B. Weaver, president; Byron Norrell, vice president and editor; A. B. Yeager, manager, and Miss Mollie Jernigan, secretary-treasurer.

The most gratifying feature of this meeting was a dividend of ten per cent declared on the year's business.

The year was one of harmony in every department. Perhaps the very fact that the principal ones concerned in the consolidation of the News and Democrat had been keen competitors for several years, had its influence in creating this state of affairs, for during that time they learned to know and respect each other and place the proper weight on the opinions of each man concerned, and believe in the sincerity of his intentions. As evidence of their faith in the solidity of the business and its bright future, Yeager, Grigsby and Norrell have largely increased their holdings of stock, purchasing it at par and considering that they had made a good trade at that figure.

Would Dissolve Murray County. Davis, Ok., Sept. 29.—Steps are being taken to dissolve Murray County and give Johnson, Pontotoc, Garvin and Carter counties an equal share in the territory. Recent developments with Sulphur and the continual unpleasant relations existing between county officers and the town fight is given as the prime reason for dissolution. A big fight is looked for between the four adjoining counties over the division. Carter county will vie with Garvin over the Ardmore mineral region. Taxpayers outside of Sulphur are almost a unit for dissolution without delay. Davis merchants and bankers refuse to express opinions, except to favor the movement inaugurated by influential citizens from every section of the county.

ROFF EAGLE TAKES A STRAW VOTE

The editor spent about 20 minutes on the streets on Wednesday morning making a poll of the voters relative to their choice for president of the United States.

Among the democrats we polled 41, divided as follows: Wilson 17, Clark 14, Harmon 5; not voting 5. Second choice: Wilson 11, Clark 13 and Harmon 7, no second choice 10.

Republicans: Taft 4, LaPollette 2. Socialists: Debs 3, Fred Warren 2.

We did not poll all the people in town but just those that we came to handily. The vast majority of the democrats are for Wilson or Clark and are not particular which one, just so it is one or the other. The only point considered between the two men is availability.—Roff Eagle.

This morning a detachment of the Ada Gun Club, consisting of R. E. Blanks, W. K. Chaney, W. J. Coffman, B. J. Corn, J. D. Lassiter and S. G. Ashby, went to Stonewall to try their luck in a match with the club of that place.

John Casteel of Sulphur is among the out of town attorneys attending court here this week.

OUR LINIMENT DO THE WORK

The pain caused by a bruise is simply nature's way of letting you know that many little blood vessels are broken and that the congested blood needs help in moving along.

In Case of a Sprain the circulation must be stimulated not only to prevent congestion, but to furnish material for repairing the injury.

It is impossible to treat such injuries from the outside, but our liniments are the ideal external applications for all such troubles and the rubbing necessary in applying them helps stimulate the circulation. You should never be without a good liniment, for the sooner they are applied after an injury the easier it is for them to do their work.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
For the convenience of the public, the Evening News will hereafter be on sale at the Postoffice News stand for the small sum of 2c. The same rate will prevail at the News office. This is less than the actual cost of the paper, and it is impossible to make the price any lower. The publishers would like to give it away, but every paper costs money to print, and if it is worth reading at all, the News is certainly worth the small sum asked for it.

Occasionally the News is subjected to some good natured gulling on account of blowing its own horn so much. Well, in our opinion, any man who feels a proper pride in his business will do likewise. We are not given to boasting, but occasionally feel moved to give the public the benefit of a few cold facts.

Talk about giving every man a fair chance, the Chinese have the real idea about it. Their night police, instead of trying to slip up on the law breakers, carry gongs which they beat as they pass along the streets, so that the culprits may have a fair chance to make a getaway. However, the Chinese method is not altogether unknown in America. This is why a rigid enforcement of laws is so extremely difficult in many places.

The News is much gratified with the good order which prevails both in Ada and the remainder of the county.
The chief reason for this excellent condition is found in the fact that our officers have been vigilant in the enforcement of the prohibition law.
When booze is kept out, the main cause of disturbances is removed.

Gen. Madero has shown himself an apt pupil of Diaz when it comes to disposing of a political rival. When it was announced that a free and fair election for the presidency would be held Gen. Reyes, one of the most popular men of the nation, intimated that he would not seek to avoid the presidential lightning should it come his way. However, Madero soon made life so extremely unpleasant for him that he was persuaded that he needed a change of climate and fled in dis-

Madge's Prayer.
(By an Ada Girl.)
"If I do so wants my mamma,"
A soft voice lisped on the stairs;
Robble and me are so lonesome, We don't know what to do with ourselves.

Do you 'spose if I wrote her a letter, Shes' in heaven you know, she would come,
'Cause daddy says he's so lonesome,
He just couldn't stand it here long.

So saying she searched for a pencil,
And wrote a long letter to God, Dear God! she began and then trembled,
For writings a terrible thing,
And 'specially for a small girl aged seven,
And writing to God up in Heaven.

I do so wants to see my dear mamma
The angels came and took her you see
And left me a little baby brother, Who can't even play here with me.

And dear God, please send your angels,
And just change my brother for me,
And send me my own dear mamma
We are all so lonesome you see.

And daddy just cant do without her,
So I guess the angels forgot
And took her instead of the baby, So, please send them back. Amen

She folded the sheet of paper,
And then climbed down from her chair,

And laid it up on the table,
Now I know God will find it there

And then swiftly her feet did patter,
Off to her trundle bed,
And throwing aside the cover
She laid down her curly head.

And soon in the land of slumber,
Her little eyes did roam,
And in her minds vision,
She saw her beautiful home.

And her father and mother together,
With the little babe on their knee,
Oh, but they think of the baby,
And not one that turns to me

But softly the vision wandered,
And by her bed stood one,
Who took her hand and whispered,
"My own, my darling Madge."

God has sent his angels,
And has ministered unto thee
For see in the twilight's glooming,
He has answered your prayer for me

Be of good cheer and do your duty,
And then your reward will be
To come with the angels to Heaven,
And to always live there with me

And so take care of your father,
And lead him into the path
That leads us ever to Jesus,
And not unto His wrath.

And then the vision departed, Madge awoke unto day
And knew she had been dreaming
Of the wonderful right-of-way That goes by the road called straight And leads us ever onward
Out through the wicket gate

She arose and went to her father,
And unto him the vision told He with bowed head and thoughtful, Listened to that story old

And straightway unto Heaven, His arms in reverence went,
O, dear Lord, forgive me,
And unto this child you've sent

Make me a tender father,
And guide her every step
From the paths of sin and unrighteousness,
And forgive us our sins. Amen

And now they are happy together, For they've found the path called Straight,
That leads to Life Eternal
Out by the wicket gate

CHAMPIONS REPEAL OF HOG LAW

(Ada, Okla., Sept. 29.
Editor Daily News.
In yesterday's News I read an article signed "A Citizen." I am sorry that this city has any one calling himself a citizen who is too big a coward to put his John Henry to any thing he writes for publication, especially if he has the interest of all the people at heart.

Now there has been much said about what the city dads should do and what they should not do about the Hog Law. Some are in favor and some opposed to keeping hogs. I think it safe to say there are at least five hundred families in this city who have kept the pig through the long hot days of July and August. A large part of these are people who are very poor. The women and children have pulled weeds and carried slop for blocks to feed the pig. Now that cold weather is almost here and time to kill will soon be here, does any one think it right to say to those people, "sell your pig or get rid of him now?"

Well, as a matter of fact there are some that will say, "Yes, sell him or kill him, just so he is gotten out of town." Now the fellow that is doing the talk does not need his hog. Why does the banker or big merchant need to keep a hog, or the old bachelor or the childless family. No, these fellows don't want the pigs.

But ask the fellow who gets up at 5 o'clock in the morning, eats his scanty meal and starts to work for Sallie and a bunch of kids. He can tell you he needs the 2, 3 or 400 pounds of pork and lard this pig will make by Feb., 1912.

The rich can buy meat, the poor can do without or eat liver if they can get it.

Now I don't care who likes or dislikes the position I take in regard to the hog. I had rather be called the hog lawyer and have the satisfaction of knowing that several poor children will sit down to breakfast and have meat to eat than to be able to say "no hogs in Ada." and know that some children are hungry for the brown gravy.

I want it understood that I say the police officers are not to be blamed for not enforcing this law. There have been two petitions filed with the city council asking for an election on this question. The last one filed Monday night. Had three more names to it than were voted at the last regular election. Now if the people had no hogs then a law prohibiting the bringing and keeping of hogs in the city would be all right. But they are here and killing time will soon be here. The council will save several hundred dollars to the owners of hogs by repealing the present law and not making another until after Feb. 1st, 1912, then to bring peace I am ready to join the crusade against Mr. Pig and what I have to say about him will not be signed a citizen. I will have manhood enough to sign my name to anything I write so the people will know whether I am a black or white citizen.

Now if the citizen who wrote the article in yesterday's News will get out of his drowsy bed before 8 o'clock some morning and go with me down on Main street or to the postoffice corner and then come with me to my pig pen, if he does not say my pepi smells better than those sink noles, it is because he has lost his smeller.

The party who signs his name citizen may get mad about this but if he does just let'er go bill A man who wont sign his name is too big a coward to raise much roar.

I am in favor of repealing the hog law until the people can save the meat they already have fattened, then I am through and have no more to say, but I am not in favor of putting them out now. R. C. ROLAND

HUNG IN ADA

James W. Newman, District Manager of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman, accompanied by J. R. Wilkinson, Special Deputy, found a lady hung around her husband's neck, begging him to take a policy in the Yeomen.

THE BEAUTIFUL FEATURES OF THIS GRAND ORDER IS AS FOLLOWS:

Twenty Reasons Why You Should Join The Yeomen.

1. On January 1, 1911, we were less than fourteen years old and had a total membership of 139,162.
2. During 1910 we increased our membership 22,- 982.
3. On January 1, 1911, we had a reserve fund of $1,360,614.26.
4. On January 1, 1911, we had paid in losses to members and their beneficiaries the sum of $5,794,- 189.92.
5. You don't have to die to win. One certificate covers all—death, total disability, accident, and old age disability.
6. We begin paying off the certificate to the disabled aged at one-tenth each year when the member reaches his seventieth birthday.
7. We give detailed publicity to our receipts and disbursements; send free to members each month a bright, newsy magazine.
8. We have a graded and low rate of assessment, backed by a modern plan of insurance.
9. We have a reserve plan which is most beneficial, just and inexpensive, guaranteeing permanency and future low cost.
10. Yeoman reserve fund securities are deposited with the State of Iowa.
11. Loans from reserve fund must be approved by the Auditor of the State of Iowa.
12. We have a most rigid medical examination, taking no poor risks.
13. We operate only in healthful territory.
14. We prohibit dangerous occupations.
15. We have a beautiful ritualistic service, based on that English classic, Ivanhoe.
16. Yeoman everywhere practice the principals of the order—Wisdom, Charity and Protection.
17. We unite both sexes in one grand order at the same rate of assessment.
18. We have a low death rate.
19. We have economical management.
20. We have been weighed in the balance and found not wanting.

Our Reserve or Emergency Plan.

As a general thing life insurance charges are either too high or too low.
Old line rates are too high; ordinarily the rates of lodge insurance is too low.
The Yeomen furnishes an intermediate rate, and has a reserve plan which is equitable and fair. This reserve plan was devised to enable our Society to maintain a reasonably low rate and still give assurance of the perpetuity of the institution.
Under the old plan of assessment insurance yet practiced by some fraternal, the beneficiary of the member who dies soon after joining receives his insurance for practically nothing.

When one man gets something for nothing, somebody else must pay double for the same thing. This is a law of mathematics and is as true as the multiplication table.

The Yeomen does not do business that way. We treat all alike. There are no special privileges to a few for which the other members must pay.

How We Help the Living—Accident.

Don't you know that accidents are constantly increasing? This strenuous life and age is the cause of this increase. Should you be unfortunate and meet with an accident, covered by your policy, the Yeomen Society comes to your aid when you need it most, and advances to you on your certificate the following cash benefits, less the proportionate amount of the expectancy deduction for the reserve fund.

RAILROADS GRANT RATES

TO ALL SOUTH CONFERENCE

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 28.—Managing Director Dawe, of the Southern Commercial Congress, who is here to address the Business Men's League regarding the All-South Conference, to be held in Memphis, October 9th, today received a telegram from the Business Men's Club of Memphis announcing that special railroad rates are to go into effect for the All-South Conference and also for the fourth annual convention of the Southern Commercial Secretaries' Association to be held in Memphis October 10th and 11th. These rates are one and one-third fare from points in Tennessee, except Chattanooga and one and one-half fare from all other southeastern territory lying south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers. Tickets will be issued on the certificate plan, full fare being required for the going trip and the purchaser procuring certificate for validation in Memphis, thus securing the reduced rate on the return journey.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this conditions must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their curative value that we promise to return the purchasers' money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Three sizes 50c, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

"Kid" stories from the Chicago News. One foggy morning little Clarence looked out of the window and exclaimed, "Oh, look at the sky, mamma! It's lying on the ground." * * * Oh, dear!" sighed little Mable, "I'm having an awful time with my dollie." "How's that?" queried the mother. "She's so cross I can't do a thing with her," answered Mabel. "I guess she must be hatching her teeth." * * * "I saw the Catskill Mountains last summer," said small Sadie, who was inclined to boast of her travels. "Did you ever see them?" "No," replied little Lola, "and I don't believe they can either. But I've seen cats kill mice."

AUTUMN.

There's autumn in the air I do not know from where It comes, nor why I know,
But the full winds that blow
Are done with summer rest.
The colors in the breast
Of the strong hills grow deep With shadows that slow creep Toward winter. There's a mirth Which laughs across the earth
Too wildly, lest the grief
Of summer find relief
In tears
Whence comes the word
The startled gardens heard?
Who whispered 'neath his breath
Of that while silence—death?
—Emery Pottle.

Democratic State Committee to Meet.

Fred. P. Branson, chairman of the state democratic central committee has issued a call for a meeting of the committee to be held at the Lee-Huckins hotel, Oklahoma City, Saturday, October 7, at 1 p. m.

The call states that matters of vital importance to the welfare of the party are to be considered at the meeting.

See B. B. Howard, the Tinner, all kinds of tin and sheet iron work, at Meigs' old stand on Broadway. Phone No. 268. 149-444

Senator Bob Taylor is for Clark.

Last night at the New Willard Senator Robert L. Taylor of Tennessee said:

"I stand by my forecast of two months ago—that the democracy in national convention is going to nominate and the people of the United States elect, Champ Clark of Missouri. The work of the extra session and Clark's part in it is conspicuously creditable to him and spells victory for the democratic party. In the language of the day, he has 'made good.'"

"There is no man in this country who more shrewdly and intelligently understands what the democratic party is now fighting for and what it would fight for than Champ Clark. Mark you, when he is nominated by the next National Democratic Convention we are going to have the best and most effective public-speaking candidate this country ever saw. He will rally, arouse and unite the national democracy as he has rallied, roused and made effective in solid phalanx the democrats of the House, and just as he won over republican aid in the house, he will win many thousands of voters who never before cast a democratic ballot.

"Another thing pleasant to think about in the event of his election is that he will carry with him a sympathetic congress. It has happened several times that presidents have failed to get along with congress, largely because they had never had congressional experience. That was the foundation of Cleveland's troubles. Champ Clark has had eighteen years of this kind of experience and no man in either party has ever enjoyed more friendships. He understands congress and knows congressmen. They understand and value him as a patriotic, progressive American, without a flaw of fanaticism. He comes from the common people. When Clark is elected every plowman can go home to supper cheered with the thought that he has not a better friend anywhere than the president."—Washington (D. C.) Post.

FRANCIS.

W. P. Chism, last week, purchased a residence on Fourth avenue, from E. E. Harlow for a consideration of $1,300.00. Mr. Chism will improve and beautify the property and make his home there.

Jap. Adams, superintendent of the water supply of the Frisco system, returned Saturday from the hospital at Sherman, Texas, where he has been confined for some weeks with typhoid fever.

Dr. Ragsdale, Methodist minister, has given up his charge and severed his connection here with the M. E. church, and accepted a position with the M. E. church at Sapulpa, with a salary of $1,500.

C. A. Reece, contractor of the city water works, was in town Saturday and informed us that he would, in a very few days, have the work complete, and have the water in town.

Miss Edwards, daughter of James Edwards, who was in the hospital, at Sherman, to get an operation for appendicitis, last week, has returned, and is almost well of all troubles.

The Frisco railroad is putting in an additional chlder pit that will be, when complete, long enough to hold tree or four engines. They are also now spreading the gravel with the view of adding six more engine stalls to the round house.

C. S. Norman & Son have had a showy sign paluted on the front of their store building on West Main street.

Sneak thieves entered the residence of Editor L. R. Clark, of the Wigwam, last Sunday night and stole $7.00 in cash and a city warrant for $10.00. The man who did it must have been drunk, locoed, or bug-house, or he never would have gone to an editor's house to find money.

Thieves tried to burglarize J. A. Cross' place the second time last night, but Mr. Cross, being awake, ran them away.

NOTICE.

I have again taken charge of the Byrd hotel and have thoroughly overhauled it. The rooms have been refurnished with new furniture and rugs. Meals are being served. Your patronage will be appreciated. 144-444 R. L. BATON.

About a year ago, a group of speculators forced the price of cotton to 15c, the United States government proceeded against them on the ground of conspiracy. This time the other side has it, and although the price has dropped steadily, no talk is heard of indicting the speculators responsible for the condition. However, little is being said about it, because no one ever thought a republican administration would do anything else. When the price favors the producer, it is conspiracy; when the manufacturer is getting the benefit, it is a matter of the law of supply and demand.

Another flurry on Wall street. It certainly takes a long time for those soft guys to learn that the man who speculates in wild stocks must sooner or later get his fingers burned. The wise things for those fellows to do is to come to Oklahoma and buy land with their surplus cash. It will in the long run pay much heavier dividends

NOVELISTS ALL WRONG

PEOPLE DO NOT PROPOSE AT ALL IN ACTUAL LIFE.

So Ascertains Man Who Has Made a Careful Investigation of What He Calls the Love-Making Game.

"It's about time the novelists were getting this proposal thing right," said the man with the meerschaum pipe, using his thumb for a bookmark.
"They ought to give us this love-making game the way it's carried out in real life.

"They get it all wrong in novels. I claim that people don't propose at all!
There's none of that heart-palpitating business outside of the Bob Chambers and other brands of fiction. I'm not married myself, but I got interested in the proposal thing some time ago and I made some investigations.

"First of all I spoke to my old friend, Phil Harper. Phil's been married for only about two years and a half—not so long that he wouldn't remember the full particulars.

"Phil," says I, "tell me now—and this is no kid, understand—tell me what you said when you proposed to your wife. Where were you and how did you get around to the subject, and were you scared, and what did your wife—or, rather, your girl—say to you and all that?"

"Phil looked at me and gave a laugh.
'Sorry I can't accommodate you,' he says, 'but to tell you the truth, I never made a proposal. Oh, no, don't get the idea that my wife proposed. I did whatever proposing was done, if you call it a proposal. After I'd been calling on Maise two or three times a week and twice on Sundays for a couple of years I found that the Maise habit had as much of a hold on me as any drug habit could have, and I didn't know of any quiet little sanitarium where I could be cured of the habit.

"One evening a couple of girl friends of Maise's strolled by the front porch and began to gush at me. One of them said that she'd be willing to bet we were engaged even at that moment.

"'Why, of course we are,' I says, acting on impulse. 'Aren't we,
Maise?'"

"'Maise gurgled a little 'yes.' That's the way I proposed."

"Then," went on the man with the meerschaum pipe, "I asked George Crothers about his courtship and proposal.

"'Why,' George told me, 'it was a queer thing about our engagement. It just sort of got to be understood between us that we would be married sooner or later. One day we were taking a walk and I stopped to look at a new apartment house that was being built.

"'Are we going to live in a flat or in a house?' I asked suddenly, and Carrie—she's my wife now—said she thought we could save money by living in a flat, at least at first. No, there were no flushes of confusion or long drawn sighs or clenches such as you read about in novels. It was p:etty companionable."

"'Oh, I must have asked a dozen friends how they proposed, and I didn't get a single case with any more 'Hearts and Flowers' music to it than these I have cited to you.

"'Still, I don't suppose there's any use getting excited over the situation.
It won't do any good. These novelists will go on dreaming their wild, moving picture dreams. And a lot of 'em call themselves realists!'"

Baby Likes Being Automatic.

To tell you the whole bitter truth, the baby does not mind being made automatic, says Ellis Parker Butler in an article in Success Magazine. The baby that is unrocked and uncradled and uncooed, and fed patent ready-made foods, and sterilized, and scientifically reared, really thrives! He is put out of doors when the weather is two notches below zero, and his hands get warm! He is plumped into bed without a pat or a lullaby, and he drops off to sleep like a little pink log! He awakens at uncanny hours of the night, and instead of howling, he winks a couple of times and goes to sleep again! He begins to teethe, and when he wails, instead of being fed and filled with soothing sirups, he has his food supply cut down to a minimum, and he teethes without fevers or stomach riots! He is bathed as a occidole would be bathed, and he loves his bath!

The Unwelcome Pollock.

Never in the history of man have pollock been so plenty along the Maine coast as they are this summer.
Pollock fishing is furnishing a good sport for scores of fishermen about the mouth of the Kennebec river, and even the oldest inhabitant does not remember when they were to be found in such quantities. How to get rid of the pollock is becoming a serious question, for they are devouring the little herring like hungry wolves.

Then they bother the codfish, a slower-acting fish than the pollock, and force them off to the eastward.
Again, the pollock attracts the dog-fish, and the latter wages war upon the cod and other fish.—Kennebec Journal.

And Moonshine.

"You want to marry my daughter?"
asked the father.

"I do," replied the young man.

"Have you anything saved up for a rainy day?"

"There won't be any rainy days if I marry your daughter. It will be all sunshine."—Tonkara Statesman.

STONEWALL ITEMS.

Cotton is now coming to the Stonewall market at a rapid rate and by the first of November practically all the cotton crop will have been marketed.

The recent rains have resulted in a surprisingly good production of second crop hay, which is being marketed at the press for $7.00 per ton, and delivered at $10.00.

The Rev. Cassidy, recently of Ft.
Scott, Kan., now of Ada, is conducting a very successful Methodist revival at this place. Mr. Cassidy has impressed his hearers as being entirely earnest and sincere in his calling, and doubtless he possesses exceptional abilities as a minister of the gospel.

The town of Stonewall has been sued in the Federal court for an alleged balance due F. R. Stone, the plaintiff, as contractor, in the construction of the town's water works.

L. M. Chandler, deputy sheriff of this community, has been quite busy of late serving process and, incidentally, rounding up offenders of the law. Mr. Chandler has acting under his deputyship only for a short while, and, from his present manoeuvres, he promises to prove himself an efficient officer, which is always a good asset to any community.

The first Comptroller of the Currency, addressed the banks in 1863 as follows:

"Do nothing to foster and encourage speculation. Give facilities only to prudent and legitimate transactions. Distribute your loans rather than concentrate them in a few hands. Treat your customers liberally, bearing in mind that a bank prospers as its customers prosper."

The above are fundamental principles on which this Bank conducts its business and history has proven them to be sound. If such banking methods appeal to you, we would like to have you join us.

The Surprise Store has begun its fall campaign of advertising. Mr. Simpson, who has made a name for himself as one of the most successful business men of Ada, has tried the News as an advertising medium, and found that it paid him good returns. The truth of the matter is that he has a whole store full of goods that he is not ashamed to let the public know about. Read his ads and profit by them, for Mr. Simpson always makes good on his promises.

Tulsa County Road Bonds Sold.

Tulsa, Ok., Sept. 29.—The county commissioners have sold a $500,000 issue of bonds voted for good roads to Spitzer & Co., of Ohio for par and the accrued interest. The proceeds of this sale will soon be available for road building, and Tulsa county will have its good roads movement under actual headway within a few weeks from now. These bonds were voted at an election a week ago, carrying by an overwhelming majority, only two precincts in the county registering a majority against the good roads movement.

Within six months from now Tulsa county expects to have a permanent pike crossing the county from north to south and east to west and such lateral roads completed as time and money at hand will permit. Contracts will be so awarded that farmers need ing work must be given the preference in employing laborers.

FRISCO WILL RUN A GOOD ROADS TRAIN

Washington, Sept. 29.—The first good roads special trains to be operated this fall and winter over leading railway systems by the federal office of public roads, will leave Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 9, for a month's tour of the lines of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad in Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia and Alabama.

The special trains are to disseminate good roads instructions to communities and farmers. Other roads to be traversed are the Atlantic Coast line and the Frisco system. The arrangement for the tour of the Frisco system have not been made yet.

The special trains are furnished and transported at the expense of the railroads, the government providing the equipment and the lecturers and demonstrators.

Death of E. W. Moore.

Wednesday evening, about 9 o'clock E. W. Moore, a young man of 25, died at his home on 13th street of congestion of the brain. He was stricken Sunday, and grew rapidly worse until the end came. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. S. Paine conducting the services.

Deceased was a Christian young man of strong character and most exemplary habits. For the past five years he has worked at the cement plant, being one of the oldest men in point of service in the works. He was a loving husband and father, and is survived by a young wife and five-months-old child who have the sincerest sympathy of the entire community. Deceased was the son-in-law of J. R. Rennison.

THE DAY IN THE DISTRICT COURT

The jury in the case of Crews vs. Frisco railroad, returned an instructed verdict in favor of plaintiff for $484.95.

This afternoon a suit involving the possession of a tract of land is on trial, the principals being M. C. Copeland and Ben Starrett. It seems that both hold deeds from the negro to whom it formerly belonged, and it is now for the court to determine which deed holds good.
